UNITED STATES AIR FORCE

CHIEF MASTER SERGEANT BRIAN P. KRUZELNICK

Chief Master Sergeant Brian P. Kruzelnick is the Command Chief Master Sergeant, 55th Wing, Offutt AFB, Nebraska. As the commander's principle advisor, he counsels on the effective employment of 7,000 personnel in six groups and 31 squadrons across six garrison and aboard locations. He assures the commander's intent is understood and executed, as well as being responsible for readiness, morale, welfare, training, personal and professional growth, and member utilization within the largest and most diverse wing in Air Combat Command. He provides senior enlisted leadership as the wing conducts worldwide intelligence, surveillance and reconnaissance (ISR); electronic attack; command and control (C2); presidential support; and treaty verification missions. He also has a responsibility to 52 associate unit, including U.S. Strategic Command, 557th Weather Wing, and 57,000 active-duty members, civilians, family members and retirees.

Chief Kruzelnick is a native of Passaic, NJ and entered the USAF in 1994. During his career, he has led in five MAJCOMs, covering training, mobility, ISR, C2, strike and space operations. He has also guided the execution of command channel, JCS-directed contingency and humanitarian relief, and joint/combined exercise missions for component commanders while assigned to total force, bilateral, multilateral, and joint service environments. Additionally, he performed as an Air Advisor in Afghanistan to establish the structure and foundation for Afghan Air Force Maintenance Operations. He has deployed numerous times to support Deny Flight, Deliberate Force, Joint Endeavour, Southern Watch, Allied Force, Operation Enduring Freedom, Iraqi Freedom, Inherent Resolve, Freedom's Sentinel, and CJTF-Horn of Africa.

Prior to assuming his current position, he served as the Command Chief, 380th Air Expeditionary Wing, Southwest Asia, exploiting airpower for Central Command's Component Commanders in order to deter, defend and defeat enemies from the Arabian Gulf to South Asia.
