UNITED STATES AIR FORCE

CHIEF MASTER SERGEANT GARY L. HART

Chief Master Sergeant Gary L. Hart is the Superintendent for the 55th Communications Group, Offutt Air Force Base, Nebraska. Chief Hart is the senior enlisted leader for Offutt's premier group of cyber professionals responsible for a wide array of base communications and computer systems and services for the 55th Wing and over 49 associate units, including Headquarters United States Strategic Command and the 557th Weather Wing. He also serves as the principal advisor to the commander on military and civilian health, welfare and morale matters, mission readiness, proper utilization of resources and the professional development of over 300 Airmen.

Chief Master Sergeant Hart entered the Air Force in March 1995. He graduated from the ground radio communications specialist course at Keesler Air Force Base, Miss., in September 1995. His background includes various duties in Cyber Operations and Intelligence, Surveillance and Reconnaissance at the unit and Air Staff levels. Throughout his career he has filled numerous roles to include First Sergeant at the unit and group level and Directorate Superintendent. Chief Hart's assignments include bases in Texas, Nevada and Nebraska. He also served overseas in the Republic of Korea, Germany, and deployed in support of Operations Southern Watch, Iraqi Freedom, Enduring Freedom, Inherent Resolve, Freedom's Sentinel and Resolute Support as well as other undisclosed locations.
