UNITED STATES AIR FORCE

COLONEL GAVIN P. MARKS

Col. Gavin P. Marks is the Commander, 55th Wing, Offutt AFB, Neb. He is responsible for organizing, training, and equipping six groups and 30 squadrons executing worldwide intelligence, surveillance and reconnaissance; electronic attack; nuclear command, control and communications support, and treaty verification missions. He is also responsible for support to more than 50 associate units, including U.S. Strategic Command, the 557th Weather Wing and more than 57,000 active-duty members, civilians, family members and retirees.

Col. Marks earned his commission from the U.S. Air Force Academy in 1996. He excelled in Specialized Undergraduate Pilot Training at Columbus AFB, Miss., and went onto Pilot Instructor Training at Randolph AFB, Texas, where he not only received distinguished graduate honors for his class, but was the top graduate of all student instructors in all trainers in 1998. Afterwards, he went to Vance AFB, Okla. as an instructor in the T-1A where he received the 2000 19th Air Force Instructor Pilot of the Year. He also participated in the prestigious Air Force Intern Program serving in both the Office of the Deputy Chief of Staff for Air and Space Operations, Operational Training Division, and the Office of the Secretary of Defense, International Security Affairs, Asian-Pacific Division, Pentagon, Washington, D.C.

Additionally, Col. Marks went to the U.S. Joint Forces Command's Joint Warfighting Center as an Observer/Trainer in the Joint Training Division, after which he returned to PIT as the Director of Operations and later, as Commander, 99th Flying Training Squadron. He later attended the National War College in Washington, D.C., where he received both distinguished graduate honors and the Dean's Award for academic excellence. He next served as executive officer, Joint Functional Component Command, U.S. Strategic Command, Joint Base Anacostia-Bolling, Washington, D.C., and as an operations planner for the Force Management Division, J-32 ISR/CCA, Joint Staff, the Pentagon, Washington, D.C. Prior to his current duty, Col. Marks served as Vice Commander of the 552d Air Control Wing at Tinker AFB, Okla.

Col. Marks is a command pilot with over 3,400 hours in the T-3, T-37, E-3B/C, T-1A, RC-135V/W, TC-135W, and WC-135C aircraft.
