UNITED STATES AIR FORCE

CHIEF MASTER SERGEANT RAYMOND T. BROWN

Chief Master Sergeant Raymond T. Brown is the Superintendent of the 55th Electronic Combat Group, Davis-Monthan Air Force Base, Arizona. He is the senior enlisted manager for the United States Air Force's uniquely modified EC-130H Compass Call electronic attack aircraft supporting worldwide expeditionary deployments and unified combatant commanders. Additionally, he advises the Group Commander on all aspects of organizing, training and equipping five squadrons of over 900 Airmen across 27 Air Force specialties to provide combat-ready aircrew, maintenance, support personnel and airborne assets for global response contingencies.

Chief Brown enlisted in the Air Force in 1988 as an aircraft maintenance specialist and has extensive experience on numerous aircraft such as the C-130E, H, EC-130E, WC-130E, H, C-9A, C-40B and several other short take-off and landing turboprop aircraft. Throughout his career, he has filled numerous roles including flight line expediter, quality assurance evaluator, production, maintenance, logistics and aircraft maintenance unit superintendent. The Chief has taken part in numerous humanitarian and combat operations and has multiple deployments in support of Operation Deny Flight, Joint Endeavor, Deliberate Guard, Desert Shield, Desert Storm, Southern Watch, Iraqi Freedom, Enduring Freedom and New Dawn.
